SELF-ASSESSMENT TOOL

FOR PRIVATE ELIGIBLE ENTITIES

Background

The CSBG organizational standards provide a standard foundation of organizational capacity for all Eligible Entities across the United States. The Federal Office of Community Services' Information Memorandum (IM) 138 provides direction to States and eligible entities on establishing organizational standards by FY 2016 and includes the final wording of the standards developed by the OCS-funded organizational standards Center of Excellence (COE).

The COE-developed organizational standards are comprehensive and were developed by and for the CSBG Network through the work of the CSBG Working Group. They work together to characterize an effective and healthy organization while reflecting the vision and values of Community Action and the requirements of the CSBG Act.

This tool has been updated with the final language for the organizational standards as issued in IM 138. The tool provides guidance regarding the intent of the CSBG Working Group as they developed the standards. Please note that the Center of Excellence may provide additional modifications to this guidance and may modify the tool as work of the CSBG Working Group and Center of Excellence work continues.

New York State Process

As part of IM138, New York State Department of State, Division of Community Services (DOS-DCS) is responsible for assessing the status of all eligible entities annually against the organizational standards. After discussion with DOS staff, grantees, the State Association and CSBG Advisory Council, it was determined that DOS-DCS would use this assessment tool to carry out the State's responsibility under IM 138.

DOS-DCS will require each eligible entity to complete this self-assessment each Federal Fiscal Year (FFY). The self- assessment and corresponding documentation must be submitted to the assigned program analyst for review and verification by January 31st. The information will be verified by the assigned program analyst and a report will be prepared identifying the unmet standards and timetable to come into compliance. Technical assistance needs will also be incorporated into the report.

Once every 3 years, the eligible entity will have an on-site review using a similar but more comprehensive tool known as the Triennial Review for Accountability with Compliance Standards (TRACS). For the FFY that the triennial review is conducted, the TRACS assessment process will replace this annual self-assessment.

Understanding the Self-Assessment Tool

First, there is brief guidance on each standard. It attempts to clarify issues that have been raised without unintentionally narrowing the standard.

Second, is the standard assessed as Met or Not Met?

Third, what document(s) were used to assess the standard? This is not intended to be an exhaustive list, nor should an agency need to have all of the sample documentation in place. This list is only meant to provide examples of ways to demonstrate how the standard is met.

There is a space on the tool to note documentation that was used but was not included on the pre-populated list. You are required to provide a hard copy of each document in support of the standard.

Gathering these document(s) will assist in providing documentation for the future Triennial Review for Accountability and Compliance with Standards (TRACS) which assesses compliance with the standards as well as state requirements.

Fourth, if the standard is not currently met, what is the progress has been done to date by the Organization to meet the standard.

Fifth, what action steps, if any, are planned by the Organization to meet or even exceed the standard.

Sixth, there are places following each standard to capture general notes and to outline next steps if needed or desired.

Submitting the Tool and Supporting Documentation

Organizing the documents is key to ensuring an efficient and thorough review. Eligible entities are required to create a binder large enough to hold each standard with the corresponding documentation behind it or attached to it. The documentation must be sufficient to support compliance with each standard. There are 58 standards in all.

When documentation for a standard is contained in a large document, provide the specific information being requested or a specific reference to the document. For example, many standards will reference the bylaws as a source for documentation. Rather than copying the full bylaws several times, the eligible entity should provide one copy of the entire bylaws for review. For the standard that require the bylaws as a source for documentation, provide a notation to the specific page or article in the bylaws associated with the standard to facilitate the reviewer's assessment of compliance.

Binders must be submitted to the assigned program analyst by January 31st.

Maximum Feasible Participation – Category 1: Consumer Input and Involvement

Standard 1.1	The organization demonstrates low-income individuals' participation in its activities.

Guidance:
- This standard is meant to embody "maximum feasible participation".
- The intent of this standard is to go beyond board membership; however, board participation may be counted toward meeting this standard if no other involvement is provided. The tripartite board is only one of many mechanisms through which eligible entities engage people with low-incomes.
- Participation can include activities such as Head Start Policy Council, tenant or neighborhood councils, and volunteering, etc.
- Though not mandatory, many eligible entities meet this standard by including advisory bodies to the board.

Standard 1.2	The organization analyzes information collected directly from low-income individuals as part of the community assessment.

Guidance:
- This standard reflects the need for eligible entities to talk directly with low-income individuals regarding the needs in the community.
- Data can be collected through a variety of ways including, but not limited to, focus groups, interviews, community forums, customer surveys, etc.
- Analyzing the information can be met through review of the collected data by staff and/or board, including a review of collected data in the written community assessment, with notations of this review in the Assessment's Appendix, committee minutes, etc.

Standard 1.3	The organization has a systematic approach for collecting, analyzing, and reporting customer satisfaction data to the governing board.

Guidance:
- This reflects the need for any business to gather information regarding customer satisfaction. All organizations need to be aware of how satisfied their customers are of the services they receive.
- This standard does not imply that a specific satisfaction level needs to be achieved.
- Documentation is needed to demonstrate all three components in order to meet the standard: 1) collection, 2) analysis, and 3) reporting of data.
- A systematic approach may include, but not be limited to, surveys or other tools being distributed to customers annually, quarterly, or at the point of service (or on a schedule that works for the individuation eligible entity). Such collection may occur by program or agency-wide at a point in time.
- Analyzing the findings is typically completed by staff.
- Reporting to the board may be via written or verbal formats.

Maximum Feasible Participation – Category 2: Community Engagement

Standard 2.1	The organization has documented or demonstrated partnerships across the community, for specifically identified purposes; partnerships include other anti-poverty organizations in the area.

Guidance:
- Partnerships are considered to be mutually beneficial arrangements wherein each entity contributes and/or receives: time, effort, expertise and/or resources.
- Specifically identified purposes may include but are not limited to: shared projects; community collaborations/coalitions with an identified topic e.g. domestic violence, homelessness, teen pregnancy prevention, transportation task forces, community economic development projects, etc.; contractually coordinated services; etc.
- The IS Report already asks for a list of partners. The intent of this standard is not to have another list, but to have documentation that shows what these partnerships entail and/or achieve.
- These could be documented through MOUs, contracts, agreements, documented outcomes, coalition membership, etc.
- This standard does not require that every partnership is a formal, fully documented relationship.

Maximum Feasible Participation – Category 2: Community Engagement

Standard 2.2	The organization utilizes information gathered from key sectors of the community in assessing needs and resources, during the community assessment process or other times. These sectors would include at minimum: community-based organizations, faith-based organizations, private sector, public sector, and educational institutions.

Guidance:
- If gathered during the community assessment, it would be documented in the assessment. If done during "other times" this may be reflected in reports, data analysis, or staff/board meeting minutes.
- Engagement may include: key informant interviews, staff participation in other community groups/advisory bodies, community-wide processes, etc.
- Documentation is needed to demonstrate that all five sectors have been engaged: community-based organizations, faith-based organizations, private sector, public sector, and educational institutions. There is no requirement for how many individual organizations the eligible entity must contact, or what data is collected.
- If one or more of these sectors are not present in the community or refuses to participate, then the eligible entity needs to demonstrate the gap or a good faith effort to engage the sector(s).
- Demonstrating that you have "gathered" and "used" the information may be met in a variety of ways including, but not limited to: summarizing the data in the community assessment or its appendices; documentation of phone calls, surveys interviews, focus groups in eligible entity files (hard copy or electronic); documentation in planning team minutes; summary reports on the data shared at board meetings or board committees; etc.

Guidance:
- This standard refers to what is sometimes called a community needs assessment, and requires that eligible entities assess both needs and resources in the community. The requirement for this assessment is outlined in the CSBG Act.
- This may require CSBG Lead Offices to adjust timeframes for required submission.
- The report may be electronic or print, and may be circulated as the eligible entity deems appropriate. This can include: websites, mail/email distribution, social media, press conference, etc.
- It may be helpful for eligible entities to document the report release date such as April 2014 or December 2015.

Guidance:
- Documentation is needed to demonstrate that both types of data are collected in order to meet the Standard:
  - Qualitative: this is opinions, observations, and other descriptive information obtained from the community through surveys, focus groups, interviews, community forums, etc.
  - Quantitative: this is numeric information, e.g. Census data, program counts, demographic information, and other statistical sources.

- Conditions of poverty may include items such as: numbers of homeless, free and reduced school lunch statistics, SNAP participation rates, etc.

	1. The mission addresses poverty; and
	2. The organization's programs and services are in alignment with the mission.

Guidance:

- "Addresses poverty" does not require using the specific word poverty in the organization's mission.
- Language such as but not limited to: low-income, self-sufficiency, economic security, etc. is acceptable.

In addition, the organization documents having used the services of a ROMA-certified trainer (or equivalent) to assist in implementation.

Guidance:
- There is no requirement to have a certified ROMA trainer on staff at the organization.
- While a ROMA trainer (or equivalent) must be involved, it is up to the organization to determine the manner in which this individual is utilized. Examples include: involving the trainer in strategic planning meetings, consultation on implementation, etc.
- This includes involving a ROMA trainer (or equivalent) in the course of ROMA-cycle activities such as the community assessment, strategic planning, data and analysis, and does not need to be a separate activity.

Standard 4.4	The governing board receives an annual update on the success of specific strategies included in the Community Action plan.

Guidance:
- The CSBG Act requires that boards be involved with assessment, planning, implementation, and evaluation of the programs: this standard supports meeting that requirement.
- This standard is met by an update being provided at a regular board meeting, and documented in the minutes.
- The update provided to the board may be written or verbal.

Guidance:
- Reporting to the governing board would most likely occur at a regular board meeting and should be reflected in minutes.
- It is important to note that to meet the Standard the organization only has to complete the assessment and report to the board. The results of the assessment are internal to the organization and therefore private.
- There is no one mandatory tool for completing this task. This comprehensive assessment is more than the financial risk assessment contained in the audit and may also include such areas as: insurance, transportation, facilities, staffing, property, etc. To meet the Standard, the tools(s) used needs to address organization-wide functions, not only individual program requirements.

Guidance:
- See the CSBG Act and IM 82 for comprehensive guidance.
- See definitions list for additional clarity on democratic selection – please note that the CSBG Act requires a democratic selection process, not election process.
- Examples of democratic selection procedures for low-income sector directors include: (1) election by ballots cast by the eligible entity's clients and/or by other low-income people in the eligible entity's service area (ballots could be cast, for example, at designated polling place(s) in the service area, at the eligible entity's offices, or via the Internet); (2) vote at a community meeting of low-income people (the meeting could serve not simply to select low-income sector directors but also to address a topic of interest to low-income people); (3) designation of one or more community organization(s) composed predominantly of and representing low-income people in the service area (for example, a Head Start policy council, low-income housing tenant association, or the board of a community health center) to designate representative(s) to serve on the eligible entity's board.

Guidance:
- There is no requirement to use a specific conflict of interest policy, only that the organization utilizes one that meets its needs.
- The signed conflict of interest policies are collected, reviewed, and stored by the organization.
- 2 CFR Part 200 (Super Circular) is in effect for any grant periods after December 26, 2014 and has additional information on conflict of interest policies and specific disclosures.
- As a point of reference, the 990 asks: Were officers, directors, or trustees, and key employees required to disclose annually interests that could give rise to conflicts? Did the organization regularly and consistently monitor and enforce compliance with the policy? If so, describe how.

Standard 5.9	The organization's governing board receives programmatic reports at each regular board meeting.

Guidance:
- This standard does not require a report on each program at every board meeting; however it does call for some level of programmatic reporting at every board meeting. Organizations determine their own process to report programs to the board. For example, some organizations may cycle through their programs semi-annually, others may do so on a quarterly basis, and yet others may do a brief summary at every board meeting.
- Board minutes should reflect that programmatic reports have been received documentation.

- This would be met through a vote by the board at a regular meeting and noted in the minutes.

Guidance:
- This standard would be met through board or staff discussions as long as the analysis and discussion are documented.
- It is important to note that an organization is likely to have multiple programs with varying program years. This standard addresses an annual review of organization outcomes. Organizations are likely to make operations and strategic program adjustments throughout the year, making a single point in time analysis less effective than ongoing performance management.
- Organizations can meet this standard by having: an annual board discussion of organization outcomes, multiple conversations over the course of the year, or other process the organization deems appropriate as long as these discussions are reflected in the minutes, with any operational or program adjustments or improvements being noted.
