

June 2021 Private Investigator Examination Instructions and Schedule

See scheduling information listed below the Mandatory COVID-19 Precaution checklist for exam candidates.

Mandatory COVID-19 Precaution checklist for exam candidates

- Do not appear for an exam if you meet any of the below:
 - Have a temperature greater than or equal to 100.4 degrees Fahrenheit.
 - Have had known close contact with a person confirmed (by diagnostic test) or suspected (based on symptoms) within the past 10 days.

Note: This does not apply to individuals that have been fully vaccinated or have recovered from COVID-19 within the past 3 months and have not developed any symptoms following the close contact. Close contact is defined by DOH as being within 6 feet of an individual for 10 minutes or more within a 24-hour period starting 2 days before symptom onset or, if asymptomatic, 2 days before the date the positive sample was collected. Close contact does not include individuals who work in a health care setting wearing appropriate, required personal protection equipment.
 - Have travelled internationally, or within a U.S. state or territory that does not border New York, for longer than 24 hours within the past 10 days and failed to follow the State's travel advisory:
<https://coronavirus.health.ny.gov/covid-19-travel-advisory>

Note: Effective April 1, 2021, New York State's travel advisory no longer requires domestic travelers to quarantine after entering New York from another US state or territory. Federal CDC requirements for international travel remains in effect: <https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/travelers/testing-international-air-travelers.html>

Exam Scheduling Procedure

To schedule your exam, email exams@dos.ny.gov. Type in the subject line, "Schedule Private Investigator Exam". Your email must include your:

- Full name
- Address
- Telephone number
- Exam site and date(s) of your choice from the list below.

The Exam Unit will attempt to accommodate your request; however, exams are limited at this time and there is no guarantee you will be scheduled for the date you requested. You will be provided with an email confirmation from exams@dos.ny.gov of your scheduled exam date and time. Only those who receive the emailed exam schedule confirmation are to report to the exam site.

Do not report to an exam site unless you receive email confirmation of your scheduled exam date and time. Arrive to your exam 15 minutes prior to the start time. Those who appear at an exam site unscheduled or after the exam start time, will be turned away.

Any person found using notes, books, or other aids; giving or receiving help; removing examination materials or notes from the exam center; causing a disturbance or engaging in practices contrary to the rules of proper examination conduct will be dismissed from the exam center. Any decisions regarding disciplinary measures will be made by the Exam Supervisor at the Department of State.

Score Reporting

All exam results are reported as either passed or failed; you will not get a numerical score.

You will be notified by mail as soon as your exam results are available.

If you pass the written exam, you will receive a notice in the mail. That original notice (not a copy) must be submitted with your application form, license fee, etc. (Complete application details are provided in the application form instructions.)

If you fail the written exam, you will receive a notice in the mail. You may request a new exam date at the site of your choice by emailing exams@dos.ny.gov.

About the Exam

Examination results are only valid for a period of two years.

The exam is multiple choice.

Exam topics include: license law; penal and criminal procedure law; investigative techniques; supervision; restrictions; interpreting written material; and report writing.

Applicants will be allowed 2½ hours to complete the test. The allotted time begins at the conclusion of the instructions.

This exam is offered in the following languages: Spanish, Haitian-Creole, Italian, Korean, Russian and Chinese.

If you wish to take the exam in one of these languages, please notify an exam proctor when you report to the exam center.

Exams may be canceled due to weather conditions or other emergencies. If hazardous weather conditions exist in your area, you may check the Examination Cancellations and Office Closures page of the Division of Licensing Service's website, the Department of State's Facebook (<https://www.facebook.com/NewYorkDepartmentOfState/>) and Twitter (@NYSDOS) accounts or call 518-474-4429 to check for exam cancellations. Please do not call the exam centers listed below.

If you need further assistance or exam information, you may contact a Division of Licensing Services office in your area or call the Albany call center at 518-474-4429. TDD users may contact the New York State relay operator at 1-800-662-1220. Persons with disabilities who require accessibility information may call 518-474-4429.
