Real Estate Salesperson Application - Instructions

For faster service, apply online at:

www.dos.ny.gov

Please take the time to read the instructions carefully before beginning the application form. Incomplete forms will be returned, delaying licensure. Any omission, inaccuracy or failure to make full disclosure in an application may be deemed sufficient reason to deny a license or could result in the suspension or revocation, if one is issued.

What is in this package?

This package includes all the information and forms you will need to apply for licensure as a Real Estate Salesperson in New York State.

A completed application will include the application form, the nonrefundable $65 application fee, and the appropriate documentation as it applies.

Please note: If you intend to be associated with more than one Real Estate Broker, you must file separate applications and fees for each such association, and consent from all your sponsoring brokers must be obtained prior to submission of this application. If you terminate association or change association, your principal broker must perform these transactions through the online services at www.dos.ny.gov.

What is a Real Estate Salesperson?

Under the supervision of a licensed real estate broker (with the exception of associate brokers), a real estate salesperson facilitates the purchase and sale of property on behalf of customers, obtains lists of property for sale with employing broker; assists buyers (customers) of real estate to locate and purchase property (listed with employing brokers or another broker). A real estate salesperson is associated with a real estate broker to list and negotiate the sale, lease, or rental of real property for others for compensation, under the direction and guidance of a responsible broker. A salesperson cannot operate independently.

Who must apply for a Real Estate Salesperson license?

Any person acting as a Real Estate Salesperson as described above is required by law to have a Real Estate Salesperson license.

Who cannot apply for a Real Estate Salesperson license?

A person is ineligible to file this application if s/he is a member of the partnership, or is an officer or owns voting stock in the corporation that is the sponsoring broker.

What qualifications do I need for licensure?

To apply for licensure you must:

- be at least 18 years of age at the time you apply
- have successfully completed a Department of State approved 77-hour qualifying course. If you have completed the 75-hour salesperson qualifying course, you may complete a two-hour continuing education course on fair housing and/or implicit bias to qualify for licensure. If you have completed the 45-hour salesperson qualifying course prior to July 1, 2008, you may complete the 30-hour remedial course and two-hour continuing education course of fair housing and/or implicit bias in order to qualify for licensure.
- be sponsored by a NYS licensed real estate broker
- pass the NYS real estate salesperson examination

What do I need to do before applying for my license?

You must successfully complete a 77-hour New York State approved course of study and pass a qualifying written examination administered by the Department before applying for a license to operate as a Real Estate Salesperson in this state. If you have completed the 75-hour salesperson qualifying course, you may complete a two-hour continuing education course on fair housing and/or implicit bias to qualify for licensure. If you have completed the 45-hour salesperson qualifying course prior to July 1, 2008, you may complete the 30-hour remedial course and two-hour continuing education course on fair housing and/or implicit bias in order to qualify for licensure. As proof of successful completion of schooling, you must have the Sales/Remedial Course Certification section of the application completed by the Department of State approved school coordinator or you may submit a copy of your course completion certificate.

The 77-hour salesperson qualifying, 75 hour salesperson qualifying and 30 hour remedial courses are only valid for 8 years past the course completion date and must be used to obtain a license or will expire and must be retaken.

Once either of these courses have been applied towards a license, they will not expire and can be used for upgrade.

What if I completed my education outside of New York State?

We may waive the 77-hour real estate education requirement if you can document an equivalent level of schooling. You must submit the following documents:

- An official transcript from an accredited college or University indicating satisfactory completion of the course(s) you would like us to consider, or an original Certificate of Course Completion from a recognized real estate school.
- An official description of the subject matter. This can usually be obtained from a school catalogue.

Send these, along with a letter requesting a waiver of the qualifying education requirements to:

Department of State
Division of Licensing Services
Bureau of Educational Standards
P.O. Box 22001
Albany, NY 12201-2001

As a matter of policy, the following courses will not be approved:

- Continuing education courses
- Correspondence courses
- Paralegal

Upon approval of your education, you will find information on how to register and schedule your examination on our website at www.dos.ny.gov.

After you pass the examination, you must submit the application form, original waiver letter and fee. This must be done within two years of the date you passed the examination.

What are the continuing education requirements for a renewal license?

A renewal license will not be issued unless you complete 22.5 hours of Department of State approved continuing education within the two-year period immediately preceding such renewal. The 22.5 hours must include at least: three hours of instruction pertaining to fair housing and/or discrimination in the sale or rental of real property or an interest in real property; two and a half hours of ethics instruction; one hour of instruction pertaining to recent legal matters; two hours of instruction pertaining to implicit bias awareness; two hours of cultural competency training; and one hour of instruction pertaining to the law of agency except, in the case of the initial two-year licensing term for real estate salespersons, two hours of agency related instruction must be completed.

What are the fees, terms of licensure?

- $65 — two-year license
- $15 — written examination

What forms of payment do you accept?

You may pay by check or money order made payable to the Department of State or charge any fee to Mastercard or Visa, using a credit card authorization form. Do not send cash.

Application fees are nonrefundable. A $20 fee will be charged for any check returned by your bank.

Child Support Statement

A Child Support Statement is mandatory in New York State (General Obligations Law) regardless of whether or not you have children or any Support obligation. Any person who is four months or more in arrears in child support may be subject to having his or her business, professional and driver's licenses suspended. The intentional submission of a false written statement for the purpose of frustrating or defeating the lawful enforcement of support obligations is punishable under §175.35 of the Penal Law. It is a class E felony to offer a false instrument for filing with a state or local government with the intent to defraud.

Where do I get the office license number requested on the application?

The number assigned to the principal or to the branch office can be obtained from your broker. It can also be located on the Department's website. It is important for the processing of your application that you fill in the office license number and indicate whether the location is the principal office or a branch office. Please note that a license number is the same as a unique ID number.

Information on Online Services

Can I apply for a salesperson license online?

Applicants who are applying for a first time salesperson license based on taking the state licensing examination may apply for a salesperson license online. If you have never signed up to take an examination, the first step is to establish an account at the following web address <https://dos.ny.gov>. Once established into the system, you should apply to take the salesperson examination of your choice. Upon passing the state examination, you may log in to your established account and complete the online salesperson application.

What qualifications will require a salesperson application to be submitted to our office rather than applying online?

If you are applying based on attorney status, requesting an additional salesperson license or were previously licensed, you must submit your application to our Licensing office for processing. If you completed education outside of New York State and have received an education waiver, you must pass the state examination and submit your application to our Licensing office for processing.

Real Estate Salesperson Application - Instructions

What are the steps involved in applying for a salesperson license online?

- Step 1: Log in to your established account.
- Step 2: Enter required information.
- Step 3: Select sponsoring broker by entering their
- Step 4: Unique ID number

The application will remain in the in-box of your sponsoring broker until the broker approves your application as a new hire.

Upon broker approval, your license will be generated by Licensing that week and mailed to the office location indicated on your application.

Why do I need to provide my e-mail address on the application?

In order to perform online transactions, you must provide your current email address on the top portion of page 4 of the application. Your email address will be used by our office to establish your online account. If you have already established an account by signing up to take the state examination, it is important that you utilize the same email address. If you change your email address in the future, you must log in to your account and update it with the new email address.

If you are submitting an application to our office, you should indicate if your email address has changed since taking the examination.

What is my User ID for the real estate online system and how do I update my online account information?

The email address of a licensee is the User ID for each online account in the real estate online system. Each User ID must be unique, therefore, you will not be able to share an email address with anyone else in the system. If you have not already established an account, your password will be emailed to you upon approval of your application by our office. You will utilize your User ID (email address), along with this temporary assigned password, to access your online account and change your password.

Do I need to be terminated by a broker who I no longer work for?

Yes, in accordance with statute, brokers are required to terminate all salespersons who are no longer working for them. All terminations must be completed by the broker through the online real estate system. The principal broker for the salesperson must log in to their personal online real estate account to perform the transaction.

Once licensed, how do I change my association from one broker to another?

All change of associations must be completed through the online system. If you have been previously working for another company, the first step is to ensure that the previous broker has already performed a termination on you. Once the termination is complete, your new representative broker should log in to their own personal online real estate account and complete the appropriate online transaction to associate you with their company. Your new broker will need your license number in order to perform the transaction.

What transactions and information are available online to salespersons?

- Complete initial Salesperson application
- Change residence address
- Renew license
- Request duplicate license print
- Examination results
- Application status
- License status

For further information pertaining to Licensing web based application procedures, please refer to our Frequently Asked Questions on our website at <https://dos.ny.gov>.

PRIVACY NOTIFICATION

Do I need to provide my Social Security and Federal ID numbers on the application?

Yes, if you have a social security number or Federal ID number, you are required to provide this number. If you do not have a social security number or Federal ID number, please provide a written explanation.

The Department of State is required to collect the federal Social Security and Employer Identification numbers of all licensees. The authority to request and maintain such personal information is found in §5 of the Tax Law and §3-503 of the General Obligations Law. Disclosure by you is mandatory. The information is collected to enable the Department of Taxation and Finance to identify individuals, businesses and others who have been delinquent in filing tax returns or may have underestimated their tax liabilities and to generally identify persons affected by the taxes administered by the Commissioner of Taxation and Finance. It will be used for tax administration purposes and any other purpose authorized by the Tax Law and may also be used by child support enforcement agencies or their authorized representatives of this or other states established pursuant to Title IV-D of the Social Security Act, to establish, modify or enforce an order of support, but will not be available to the public. A written explanation is required where no number is provided. This information will be maintained in the Licensing Information System by the Director of Administration and Management, at One Commerce Plaza, 99 Washington Avenue, Albany, NY 12231-0001.
