You have been shortlisted for a Job briefing and Interview with our company. I would like to know if you are still interested in the job position?

Would you be able to send me any information about the company. Or provide a link. Im not sure which position it is as there are several listed there.

Okay, I need you to Search Signal Messenger on your Apple store or Google play store & have it downloaded to your Smartphone and also use your Cell# to setup an account, NOTE : This is a typing/chatting interview & not a video/audio interview. Notifv me once you're done

This may work better when I return home. I'm am still out at the moment and I was not expecting an evening interview.

Okay

Ms. Powe, This just isn't enough information for me to attempt to interview. I did visit the link you provided but I haven't received an email or anything from you which affiliates you with Oxley. I can't substantiate the job so I am not comfortable with this process. Thank you for your interest.
