

Home Inspector License Application

Read the instructions carefully before completing the application. Incomplete applications will be returned, delaying licensure. Any omission, inaccuracy or failure to make full disclosure in an application or supporting documentation may be deemed sufficient reason to deny a license, or, if a license is issued could result in the suspension or revocation of a license.

What is a Home Inspector?

New York State law Article 12-B §444-B(4) of the Real Property Law defines a Home Inspector as any person licensed to do home inspections.

What are Home Inspections?

New York State law Article 12-B §444-B(5) of the Real Property Law defines a home inspection as the process by which a home inspector observes and provides a written report of the systems and components of a residential building including but not limited to:

- A. Heating System
- B. Cooling System
- C. Plumbing System
- D. Electrical System
- E. Structural Components - foundation, roof masonry structure, exterior and interior components or any other related residential building component recommended by the Home Inspection Council and implemented by the Department through the regulatory process.

Who is excluded from this law?

Explicitly excluded are Architects, Professional Engineers, and Certified Code Enforcement Officers. Whether new to the field or existing, they can continue engaging in home inspections without need of this license provided they are working within the scope of their profession. However, if they open a home inspection business they will be required to obtain a license.

What qualifications does a Licensed Architect or a Professional Engineer opening his/her own home inspection business need to meet?

An individual who is a Licensed Architect or a Professional Engineer will need to provide proof of their professional license along with the completed application and fee. They will be exempt from the course work, examination requirements and the continuing education requirements as set forth in statute for a home inspector license.

Is there a liability insurance requirement?

Yes, §444-K(1) of The Home Inspection Professional Licensing Act requires that every licensed home inspector who is engaged in home inspection shall secure, maintain, and file with the Secretary proof of a certificate of liability coverage. Applicants must submit proof of general liability insurance which shall be a minimum amount of $150,000 per occurrence and $500,000 aggregate.

Pursuant to §197-1.1 proof of liability coverage shall include the following information: Name of insured (the applicant's name only if applying as an individual or the applicant's and AND the business name if applying as a business entity); Name of insurance company, Business address and telephone number of insurance company; Policy number; Policy expiration date and the Secretary of State as certificate holder.

Can one obtain a Home Inspector's License based on licensure in another state?

Yes, if NYS has entered into a reciprocity agreement with another state. Upon submission of an application and fee, we will review application requests from individuals submitting proof of current licensure from another state where requirements are equivalent to NYS. Where found equivalent, education and exam requirements will be waived, and a license issued.

What are the fees, terms of licensure?

Application Fee: Each application must be accompanied by a nonrefundable application fee of $250; the license will be effective for 2 years.

Renewal Fee: The renewal fee is $100 for a two year term.

What qualifications and supporting documents do I need to apply for licensure?

You can apply based on the following:

- a. Have successfully completed high school or its equivalent;
- b. Education: Taken and successfully completed a course of study of not less than 140 hours approved by the Department. Of those hours, 40 must be unpaid field based inspections in the presence of and under direct supervision of a Home Inspector licensed by NYS, or a professional engineer or architect, regulated by NYS.

OR

- Experience: Have performed not less than 100 home inspections (paid or unpaid) in the presence of and under the direct supervision of a Home Inspector licensed by NYS, or a professional engineer or architect regulated by NYS;
- c. Successful Completion of an Exam: Have passed the NYS Home Inspector Licensing Examination or the National Home Inspector Examination;
- d. Freedom from Disqualifying Criminal Convictions;
- e. Application Fee: Each application must be accompanied by a nonrefundable application fee of $250; the license will be effective for 2 years.

Home Inspector License Application

What forms of payment do you accept?

You may pay by check or money order made payable to the Department of State or charge any fee to MasterCard or Visa, using a credit card authorization form. Do not send cash. Application fees are nonrefundable. A $20 fee will be charged for any check returned by your bank. (Applicants should understand that if the application filing fee is paid with a personal check, and the check is returned by the bank due to insufficient funds, the next step in the licensure process will be delayed until the fee [includes $20 returned check charge] is paid.)

What is the renewal fee and how does one renew their license?

The renewal application is mailed to the Home Inspector approximately 3 months prior to the expiration of his or her license. The application must be completed and submitted with a $100 fee to the Department of State, Division of Licensing Services. Instructions for proper submission will be included with the renewal application. The term of licensure is 2 years.

Are there any continuing education requirements?

Yes. Home inspectors are required to complete 24 hours of approved continuing education within their two-year license renewal period prior to the expiration date in order to renew their license.

Child Support Statement

A Child Support Statement is mandatory in New York State (General Obligations Law) regardless of whether or not you have children or any support obligation. Any person who is four months or more in arrears in child support may be subject to having his or her business, professional and driver's licenses suspended. The intentional submission of a false written statement for the purpose of frustrating or defeating the lawful enforcement of support obligation is punishable under §175.35 of the Penal Law. It is a class E felony to offer a false instrument for filing with state or local government with the intent to defraud.

PRIVACY NOTIFICATION

Do I need to provide my Social Security and Federal ID numbers on the application?

Yes, if you have a social security number or Federal ID number, you are required to provide this number. If you do not have a social security number or Federal ID number, please provide a written explanation.

The Department of State is required to collect the federal Social Security and Employer Identification numbers of all licensees. The authority to request and maintain such personal information is found in §5 of the Tax Law and §3-503 of the General Obligations Law. Disclosure by you is mandatory. The information is collected to enable the Department of Taxation and Finance to identify individuals, businesses and others who have been delinquent in filing tax returns or may have underestimated their tax liabilities and to generally identify persons affected by the taxes administered by the Commissioner of Taxation and Finance. It will be used for tax administration purposes and any other purpose authorized by the Tax Law and may also be used by child support enforcement agencies or their authorized representatives of this or other states established pursuant to Title IV-D of the Social Security Act, to establish, modify or enforce an order of support, but will not be available to the public. A written explanation is required where no number is provided. This information will be maintained in the Licensing Information System by the Director of Administration and Management at One Commerce Plaza, 99 Washington Avenue, Albany, NY 12231-0001.
