PURSUANT TO THE PROVISIONS OF THE State Administrative Procedure Act, NOTICE is hereby given of the following action:

Action taken: Addition of new Part 352 to Title 6 NYCRR.

Statutory authority: Environmental Conservation Law, sections 1-0101, 3-0301, 35-0105 and 37-0117

Subject: 1, 4-Dioxane Limits for Household Cleansing, Personal Care, and Cosmetic Products.

Purpose: To implement L. 2019, ch. 613, section 1, eff. Jan. 1, 2022; L. 2020, ch. 44, section 1, eff. Jan. 1, 2022.

Substance of final rule: 6 NYCRR Part 352, Product Chemical Restrictions and Disclosure

Subpart 352-1, 1,4-Dioxane Limits for Household Cleansing, Personal Care, and Cosmetic Products

The New York State Department of Environmental Conservation is proposing to add 1,4-Dioxane Limits for Household Cleansing, Personal Care, and Cosmetic Products to the New York Codes, Rules and Regulations by Statutory authority. The Department is adding a new 6 NYCRR Part 352, Product Chemical Restrictions and Disclosure. The express terms for this rulemaking will be included in Subpart 352-1, 1,4-Dioxane Limits for Household Cleansing, Personal Care and Cosmetic Products and are summarized below.

Section 352-1.1 includes the purpose and applicability of the regulations.

Section 352-1.2 includes definitions for the terms “continuing calibration verification,” “correlation coefficient,” “cosmetic product,” “household cleansing product,” “initial calibration,” “initial calibration verification,” “internal standard,” “laboratory control sample/laboratory control sample duplicate,” “limit of detection (LOD),” “limit of quantitation (LOQ),” “manufacturer,” “matrix spike/matrix spike duplicate,” “method blank,” “multiple reaction monitoring,” “percent recovery,” “percent relative standard deviation,” “person,” “personal care product,” “relative percent difference,” “selected ion monitoring,” “signal to noise ratio,” and “State”.

Section 352-1.3 includes the prohibitions on the allowable concentration of 1,4-dioxane in household cleansing products that may be distributed, sold, offered, or exposed for sale in the State and prohibitions on personal care and cosmetic products that may be sold or offered for sale in the State. For household cleansing and personal care products, the allowable concentration will be two parts per million of 1,4-dioxane on or after December 31, 2022 and one part per million of 1,4-dioxane on or after December 31, 2023. For cosmetic products, the allowable concentration will be 10 parts per million of 1,4-dioxane on or after December 31, 2022.

Section 352-1.3 also includes the prohibitions on the allowable concentration of 1,4-dioxane in cosmetic products that may be sold or offered for sale in the State. The allowable concentration will be ten parts per million of 1,4-dioxane on or after December 31, 2022.

Section 352-1.4 includes the provisions for waiver applications. Under the general provisions of section 352-1.4(a)(1), a manufacturer of household cleansing, personal care, or cosmetic product(s) may apply to the Department for a one-year waiver from the applicable requirement in section 352-1.3 for a specific product upon such proof that the manufacturer has taken steps to reduce the presence of 1,4-dioxane in that product and is unable to comply with the applicable requirement in section 352-1.3. Thereafter, a manufacturer may apply for one additional one-year waiver for such product, upon such the satisfaction of such similar proof. Waivers will be granted, in the Department’s sole discretion, based upon the Department’s evaluation of the application and the efforts undertaken by the manufacturer to comply with the 1,4-Dioxane limits set forth in this section. Additionally, this section includes the provisions on the proof requirements for a waiver, the filing process and timeline, waiver renewal, and applicability of a waiver.

Section 352-1.5 includes the requirements for a compliance evaluation, which are the actions a manufacturer must conduct to demonstrate compliance with the limitations set forth in section 352-1.3 for any household cleansing product that is distributed, sold, offered, or exposed for sale, or for any personal care or cosmetic product sold or offered for sale in the State. A compliance evaluation must include one or more of the following: a reasonable inquiry of raw material suppliers regarding the composition of raw materials; a reasonable assessment of the sum of the 1,4-dioxane concentrations contributed by each raw material; or analytical testing of finished product formulations.

Section 352-1.6 includes the guidelines for laboratory test criteria to ensure analytical testing of a product or raw material is reliable. These guidelines include method performance criteria laying out the appropriate sample preparation, method, instrument, calibration, and quality control criteria.

Section 352-1.7 includes a severability clause for the express terms.

Final rule as compared with last published rule: Nonsubstantial changes were made in sections 352-1.1(b), 352-1.2(a), (e), 352-1.3(a), (c), 352-1.5(a)(1), (3), (4).

Summary of Revised Regulatory Impact Statement

The New York State Department of Environmental Conservation (Department) is proposing to adopt 6 NYCRR Subpart 352-1 to implement the amendments to Article 35 and Article 37 of the Environmental Conservation Law (ECL), adopted in 2019, which established limits on the amount of 1,4-dioxane that can be present in household cleansing, personal care, and cosmetic products sold or offered for sale in New York State (L.2019, c. 613, § 1, eff. Jan. 1, 2022; L.2020, c. 44, § 1, eff. Jan. 1, 2022) (hereinafter referred to as “the Law”). The Law establishes a maximum allowable concentration of 2 parts per million (ppm) of 1,4-dioxane effective December 31, 2022, and 1 ppm effective December 31, 2023, for household cleansing and personal care products, and 10 ppm of 1,4-dioxane effective December 31, 2022, for cosmetic products.

The Department’s statutory authority for these regulations is found in ECL sections 1-0101, 3-0301, 35-0105, and 37-0117. The New York State Legislature enacted the Law to protect New York’s public waters and drinking water, by reducing the amount of 1,4-dioxane entering the State’s waters by way of the covered products. The Legislature also included waiver provisions in the Law to allow manufacturers who cannot meet the statutory limits additional time to develop methods for removing 1,4-dioxane from their products. This proposed regulation is in line with the Legislature’s intent, as it implements the provisions of the Law.

This proposed regulation implements the statutory limits on the amount of 1,4-dioxane allowed in covered products, provides detail on how manufacturers can apply for a waiver of these limits for a limited amount of time, and sets method performance criteria, which would allow regulated entities to use any analytical method of their choosing provided the method meets the criteria set forth in the regulation, ensuring manufacturers use a consistent approach to determine compliance with these limits.

According to United States Environmental Protection Agency’s (EPA’s) Integrated Risk Information System (IRIS) database, 1,4-dioxane is identified as “likely to be carcinogenic to humans.” Despite the known health risks, 1,4-dioxane is still found in many consumer products, such as cosmetics, detergents, deodorants, and shampoos, where it is typically formed as a contaminant during the manufacturing process of such products. These products are used by consumers and then enter from sinks and drains into residential septic systems where they enter local wastewater treatment systems. Elevated levels of 1,4-dioxane have been found in municipalities across the State.

In response to the elevated levels, in 2020, New York State adopted a Maximum Contaminant Level (MCL) for drinking water for 1,4-dioxane of 1 part per billion (ppb).

The Law establishes maximum allowable, trace concentrations and authorizes the Department to periodically review such trace concentrations and determine whether such concentrations should be lowered. This proposed regulation will implement the statutory limitations of 1,4-dioxane in covered products, thereby reducing the amount of 1,4-dioxane in the State’s waters.

The proposed regulation does not impose any additional costs to the regulated community

(manufacturers) beyond that which is imposed by the Law. The cost of compliance with the Law greatly depends on how much 1,4-dioxane is currently in each product and the method by which compliance is achieved. If a manufacturer does not sell any covered products that have more 1,4-dioxane than the maximum concentration, their initial cost of compliance is essentially zero. However, each product a manufacturer sells with 1,4-dioxane in excess of the maximum concentration will add to their cost of initial compliance. To bring each product into compliance, manufacturers may choose to reformulate with substitute surfactants, modify manufacturing facilities to remove 1,4-dioxane from raw materials, or work with raw material suppliers to do either of the above or find other options that satisfy compliance obligations. More details on the options and costs are discussed in the complete Regulatory Impact Statement.

The State will not incur additional costs due to the issuance of the proposed regulations beyond the costs associated with implementing the Law. However, to implement the Law and regulations, the Department will incur costs associated with purchasing and testing products for compliance. To evaluate compliance, staff overseeing the program will need to conduct sampling and analysis of products to determine the concentration of 1,4-dioxane and may utilize existing contracts with laboratories for support in evaluating compliance. There are no known costs to local government that are directly related to the implementation and continuing compliance of the proposed regulations.

Neither the proposed Subpart 352-1 nor the Law impose any requirements on local governments.

The proposed regulation does not impose any reporting requirements beyond that which is imposed by the Law. However, the proposed regulation does provide more detail than the Law on certain paperwork requirements. In most cases, paperwork may be submitted and maintained in electronic format.

Manufacturers who seek a waiver from the statutory limits must submit an application to the Department. If a manufacturer chooses to seek a waiver, it must maintain records for the duration of the waiver documenting the levels 1,4-dioxane in the product(s) for which a waiver is granted.

A manufacturer must also, upon request by the Department, submit records that demonstrate the compliance evaluation that was conducted for the covered product(s).

This proposed regulation does not duplicate any existing regulations pertaining to the presence of 1,4-dioxane in these product categories at the federal or state level.

The Department considered other alternatives to the proposed regulation but determined that a regulation was necessary to implement the statutory requirements.

Since the Law and the proposed Subpart 352-1 set quantitative standards on the 1,4-dioxane content in household cleansing, personal care and cosmetic products, the Department sought to include an approved analytical method in the regulation to clarify how 1,4-dioxane content should be measured in covered products; however because certain methods have not yet been peer-reviewed or are not being used by authoritative entities for regulatory purposes, the Department felt it appropriate to instead develop method performance criteria, which would allow regulated entities to use any analytical method of their choosing so long as it meets the outlined criteria, which ensures the method will produce reliable results.

The Department also clarified certain definitions and statutory requirements based on inquiries received from the public during public meetings, and further, considered additional regulatory provisions based on comments received, but decided not to implement all suggestions for reasons detailed in the full Regulatory Impact Statement.

The federal government does not have a standard for how much 1,4-dioxane is acceptable in household cleansing, personal care, or cosmetic products.

Revised Regulatory Flexibility Analysis, Rural Area Flexibility Analysis and Job Impact Statement

The Regulatory Flexibility Analysis, Rural Area Flexibility Analysis and Job Impact Statement that were previously published remain accurate and do not require revision to address the non-substantive changes incorporated as part of this Notice of Adoption.

Initial Review of Rule

As a rule that requires a RFA, RAFA or JIS, this rule will be initially reviewed in the calendar year 2027, which is no later than the 3rd year after the year in which this rule is being adopted.

Assessment of Public Comment

The New York State Department of Environmental Conservation (department) prepared an Assessment of Public Comment (APC) to address the comments received on the proposed 6 NYCRR Subpart 352-1. This rulemaking implements the recently enacted law restricting the sale of household cleansing, personal care, and cosmetic products containing greater than trace amounts of 1,4-dioxane (L. 2019 c. 613, amended by L. 2020, c. 44 [the Law]). Notice of the proposed rulemaking appeared in the December 6, 2023, State Register, as well as in the department’s Environmental Notice Bulletin. Public comments were received from December 6, 2023, through February 12, 2024, and a virtual public hearing was held on February 6, 2024.

Multiple commenters stated that concentrated or bulk products should be expected to contain a higher concentration of 1,4-dioxane, but as they provide environmental benefits, accommodation of higher concentrations should be made for products as sold. Further, they recommended the department adopt language similar to California regulations, which limit volatile organic compounds (VOCs) in concentrated consumer products only after the minimum dilution has already taken place.

Product testing data demonstrates that manufacturers are already complying with the maximum allowable concentrations of 1,4-dioxane. Further, the department cannot adopt limits which are higher than allowed under the Law, which restricts the sale of products that contain 1,4-dioxane. The department considered language similar to California’s, but will not be adopting it.

One commenter noted a discrepancy between the applicability section which did not include “distribute” as it pertains to the sale of cosmetic products, and the prohibitions section which did use the term “distribute” as it pertains to cosmetic products.

The department has revised the prohibitions section to be consistent with the Law.

Another commenter pointed out an error in the Summary of Express Terms on page 1, where 2 ppm and 1 ppm were attributed to cosmetic products.

The department removed the erroneous reference to cosmetic products in the Revised Express Terms Summary.

Multiple commenters also objected to the inclusion of automobile cleansing products in the definition of household cleansing product.

The department determined that automobile cleansing products that contain surfactant ingredients and are used primarily for domestic or commercial cleaning purposes meet the definition of “household cleansing product” and are within the scope of the rule.

Commenters also objected to the inclusion of the phrase “and other similar products that include an antimicrobial agent” in the definition of household cleansing product. Many products that include an antimicrobial agent, however, meet the definition of “household cleansing product”. Although these products may be registered as a pesticide, they are primarily cleaning agents as indicated by their label directions, which state they can be used for cleaning purposes. Products that contain antimicrobial agents that are not intended for use for domestic or commercial cleaning purposes would not meet the definition of household cleansing product. To provide clarity, the department is striking the phrase “and other similar products that include an antimicrobial agent” from the definition of household cleansing product. Also, given the definitions of “commercial establishment” and “household cleansing product” in ECL 35-0103, the department believes products used for institutional cleaning purposes are within the scope of the Law.

In addition, the department determined that, as cleaning products used on the exterior of a household or commercial property that contain a surfactant as a wetting or dirt emulsifying agent that are used primarily for domestic or commercial cleaning purposes meet the definition, they are within the scope of “household cleansing products” in the Law and this rule.

One commenter noted ambiguity in the term “soap” and asked the department to incorporate the federal Food and Drug Administration’s interpretation of the term “soap” in the definitions.

The department revised the definition of “household cleansing product” under section 352-1.2(d)(1) to clarify the scope of the term with respect to soaps to exclude hands soaps from the definition.

Several commenters asked that the department include a hierarchy of responsibility to the term “manufacturer,” define the terms “reasonable inquiry” and “certified reference material” and clarify the information that a manufacturer needs to consider to demonstrate compliance with the prohibitions.

The definition of the term “manufacturer” clarifies what entities are subject to the regulations and the department will not revise the proposed definition. The department revised the proposed regulations to clarify the information that a manufacturer needs to consider to demonstrate compliance with the prohibitions and added a definition for the term “certified reference material.”

One commenter stated that 1,4-dioxane concentrations in products may change over time based on various factors and requests clarification on the point at which the 1 ppm limit will be enforced.

Any person who distributes, sells, or offers for sale household cleansing, personal care, or cosmetic products containing 1,4-dioxane should manage them in accordance with applicable regulations. As such, the department is not amending the regulations.

One commenter urged the department to include information on reviewing and potentially lowering the standard for 1,4-dioxane in products in the proposed regulations.

The Law gives the department the authority to periodically review such trace concentration thresholds and determine whether such concentrations shall be lowered to better protect human health and the environment, in consultation with the department of health.

One commenter argued that manufacturers claiming levels of 1,4-dioxane in their products as confidential commercial information should not be allowed.

6 NYCRR Part 616 guides the department’s consideration of confidential commercial information, and as such this comment is outside the scope of this rulemaking.

Commenters encouraged the department to be stringent and judicious when approving waiver renewals, to adhere to the December 30, 2025, end date of waiver allowance, and to require manufacturers who received waivers to submit testing of the final product at the end of the waiver period.

After the adoption of the regulations, the department will review waiver applications in accordance with the provisions of section 352-1.4. Further, as section 352-1.5 allows the department to request information on product compliance, an additional requirement to test products at the end of the waiver period is not needed.

One commenter disagreed with the section 352-1.4 requirement that different fragrance blends of the same product be listed as separate products on a waiver application and requested that products of same formula be allowed to be listed as one product on a waiver even if they differ in the fragrance blends.

The department has been implementing Program Policy DMM-21-02 in a manner consistent with this provision of the regulations and believes that changes to section 352-1.4(a)(4) are not needed.

Four commenters stated that the compliance evaluation provision is unnecessary and should be removed. Further, the commenters request that the compliance evaluation section be clarified as to which of the three options are required when substantiating product compliance and sought clarification on the requirements and the records necessary documenting compliance when utilizing dilution calculations.

The compliance evaluation provisions are needed as the Law sets quantitative standards for 1,4-dioxane concentrations in subject products but does not specify how manufacturers will demonstrate compliance. However, the department revised section 352-1.5 to provide further clarification on the information that a manufacturer needs to gather and the options by which compliance evaluation may be substantiated.

Two commenters requested that the record retention portion of the compliance evaluation be clarified.

The department revised 352-1.5(3)(ii) to require retention of records for a period of three years after the manufacture of a product has been discontinued.

Commenters recommend the department require manufacturers to provide updates on compliance evaluations when raw materials change, make evaluations publicly accessible, require the publication of all evaluations, and ensure compliance along the supply chain.

The department may request compliance evaluation information from manufacturers at any time. The regulations require manufacturers to conduct compliance evaluations for any covered product that is distributed, sold, offered, or exposed for sale in the State. As such, manufacturers, are responsible for evaluating and ensuring compliance.

One commenter noted that there could exist “unanticipated factors unbeknownst to the manufacturer” after production and while in market that could render a manufacturer liable for noncompliance and litigation despite a manufacturer’s own record showing otherwise and requests possible safeguards the department could put in place so that manufacturers are not penalized.

If a manufacturer is aware of or anticipates that variation may exist between formulations which may affect the concentration of 1,4-dioxane in the product, section 352-1.5(3)(i) requires manufacturers to evaluate compliance based on the product formulation that is expected to result in the highest 1,4-dioxane concentration.

Three commenters recommended that manufacturers should be allowed 30 days to respond to a request for a compliance evaluation from the department.

The Department revised the regulations to allow manufacturers up to 30 days to respond to a documentation request.

Three commenters argued that the regulations imply spectrometer-based methodology is required and that gas chromatography-mass spectrometry (GC/MS) methods, which are critical for third party labs which are not able to complete true method validations for all products they may work with, and that manufacturers and others do not regularly use these methods. They also stated that flame ionization detection (FID), which has been shown to enable adequate selectivity and sensitivity across ethoxylated raw materials, should be allowed. Another commenter stated that the methodology in this section “is excessively sensitive for the sole purpose of showing that product is <1ppm and is redundant” but did not provide additional information in support of its claim.

While manufacturers and raw material suppliers may choose to use an FID or other instrument as a screening tool for raw materials, flame ionization may not be appropriate for all situations, including for finished product matrices. As such, manufacturers will need to use analytical methods that meet the laboratory testing guidelines in section 352-1.6 to reliably and accurately determine the concentration of 1,4-dioxane in both finished products and raw materials. Further, the laboratory testing guidelines set forth in section 352-1.6 provide flexibility in allowing the use of any analytical method that can quantify the concentration of 1,4-dioxane with accuracy and reliability, if it meets the minimum requirements of this section.

Three commenters requested that the department amend several of the quality control provisions in the laboratory tests section, such as allowing a 3-point or 4-point calibration curve; tightening the range of extraction recoveries to avoid discrepancies between manufacturers and labs doing enforcement testing; correcting language for the limit of quantitation for 1,4-dioxane concentration in all method blanks; and matching the acceptance criteria for initial calibration verification with the continuing calibration verification.

The proposed quality control provisions are based on method performance criteria developed in conjunction with California Department of Toxic Substance Control, which incorporate criteria recommended by the Environmental Protection Agency in Test Method 8000D for Determinative Chromatographic Separations, as such will not be amended.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING NO HEARING(S) SCHEDULED

Financing for a Merchant Owner and Operator of a Wind-Powered Generating Facility

I.D. No. PSC-38-24-00002-P

PURSUANT TO THE PROVISIONS OF THE State Administrative Procedure Act, NOTICE is hereby given of the following proposed rule:

Proposed Action: The Commission is considering a petition by Alle-Catt Wind Energy LLC seeking financing in connection with its construction and operation of a wind-powered electric generating facility being developed in the Town of Yorkshire.

Statutory authority: Public Service Law, sections 2(12), (13), 5(1)(b), 64, 65, 66 and 69

Subject: Financing for a merchant owner and operator of a wind-powered generating facility.

Purpose: To determine whether the requested financing is consistent with the Public Service Law.

Substance of proposed rule: The Public Service Commission (Commission) is considering a petition filed by Alle-Catt Wind Energy LLC (Alle-Catt) on August 8, 2024, seeking financing pursuant to Public Service Law § 69 in connection with its construction and operation of a wind-powered electric generating facility being developed in the Town of Yorkshire (the Project).

As noted in the petition, Alle-Catt seeks authorization to modify the Commission's prior financing approval, granted on June 24, 2024, by increasing the maximum indebtedness from $800,000,000.00 to include up to $1,500,000,000.00, which will continue to be used for the statutory purpose of constructing the Project. In support of this request, Alle-Catt indicates that this request is prompted by changes in economic circumstances beyond its control, including increased costs for equipment, labor and materials, as well as interest rates and the general cost of financing. Alle-Catt further notes that it and Invenergy, as its parent company, will bear all of the financial risk associated with the anticipated financing arrangements.

The full text of the petition and the full record of the proceeding may be reviewed online at the Department of Public Service web page: www.dps.ny.gov. The Commission may adopt, reject, or modify, in whole or in part, the action proposed and may resolve related matters.

Petition to Submeter Electricity and Waiver Request

I.D. No. PSC-38-24-00003-P

PURSUANT TO THE PROVISIONS OF THE State Administrative Procedure Act, NOTICE is hereby given of the following proposed rule:

Proposed Action: The Commission is considering the petition of 547 River, LLC to submeter electricity at 547 River Street, Troy, New York, and request for waiver of the energy audit requirement in 16 NYCRR § 96.5(k)(3).

Statutory authority: Public Service Law, sections 30, 32-48, 52, 53, 65(1), 66(1), (2), (3), (4), (12) and (14)

Subject: Petition to submeter electricity and waiver request.

Purpose: To ensure adequate submetering equipment, consumer protections, and energy efficiency protections are in place.

Substance of proposed rule: The Commission is considering the petition filed by 547 River, LLC (Owner) on April 22, 2024, seeking authority to submeter electricity at a newly renovated rental building consisting of market-rate and income-eligible units, located at 547 River Street, Troy, New York, in the service territory of Niagara Mohawk Power Corporation d/b/a National Grid (National Grid).

The Owner also requests waiver of 16 NYCRR § 96.5(k)(3), the requirement for an energy audit for buildings where 20 percent or more of the residents receive income-based housing assistance because the building is subject to the New York City Energy Conservation Code, which sets energy efficiency standards for new construction.

In the petition, the Owner requests authorization to take electric service from National Grid and then distribute and meter that electricity to its tenants. Once approved by the Commission, submetering of electricity to residential tenants is allowed so long as it complies with the protections and requirements of the Commission's regulations in 16 NYCRR Part 96.

The Commission is also considering the Owner's request for waiver of 16 NYCRR § 96.5(k)(3), which requires proof that an energy audit has been conducted when 20 percent or more of the residents receive income-based housing assistance. The Owner states that the building must comply with the current New York State Energy Conservation Construction Codes, which provides strict energy conservation requirements for new and renovated buildings, including the design and construction of energy-efficient building envelopes, mechanical, lighting and power systems, and therefore, an energy audit is not necessary in this instance.

The full text of the petition and waiver request and the full record of the proceeding may be reviewed online at the Department of Public Service web page: www.dps.ny.gov. The Commission may adopt, reject, or modify, in whole or in part, the action proposed and may resolve related matters.

Residential and Retail Energy Storage Programs

I.D. No. PSC-38-24-00004-P

PURSUANT TO THE PROVISIONS OF THE State Administrative Procedure Act, NOTICE is hereby given of the following proposed rule:

Proposed Action: The Commission is considering the Residential and Retail Energy Storage Market Acceleration Incentive Implementation Plan filed by the New York State Energy Research and Development Authority.

Statutory authority: Public Service Law, sections 5(1), (2), 65(1), (5), 66(1), (12), (14), 66-p and 74

Subject: Residential and retail energy storage programs.

Purpose: To consider the outline of program goals and implementation strategies for the residential and retail energy storage programs.

Substance of proposed rule: The Public Service Commission (Commission) is considering the Residential and Retail Energy Storage Market Acceleration Incentives Implementation Plan (Implementation Plan) filed on August 19, 2024 by the New York State Energy Research and Development Authority (NYSERDA).

The Implementation Plan describes the program goals and implementation strategies for the residential and retail energy storage programs authorized by the Commission in its Order Establishing Updated Energy Storage Goal and Deployment Policy (Storage Order), issued on June 20, 2024 in Case 18-E-0130.

The Storage Order established energy storage programs spanning across the bulk, retail, and residential sectors and directed NYSERDA to file two implementation plans, one for bulk and one for retail and residential, to describe the strategies to be used to effectuate the programs described in the Storage Order. The Implementation Plan for the residential and retail energy storage programs was filed by NYSERDA on August 19, 2024. As discussed therein, the residential energy storage program includes grid-connected residential energy storage projects that are installed behind a residential meter, while the retail energy storage program includes customer and distribution grid-connected non-residential energy storage projects up to 5 MW-AC and 20 megawatt-hours.

The Implementation Plan describes the retail and residential storage programs including the megawatt-hour block incentive levels. For both of the storage programs, the Implementation Plan describes customer and project eligibility, how to apply for incentives, requirements for finding and becoming an approved contractor, disadvantaged community considerations, and quality assurance. In addition to those details, as it relates to the retail storage program, the Implementation Plan describes prevailing wage and project labor agreement requirements, measurement and verification requirements for the energy storage system's charge and discharge activity, and fire safety requirements. In addition, the Implementation Plan provides details on program administration and budget for both the retail and residential storage programs.

The full text of the Implementation Plan and the full record of the proceeding may be reviewed online at the Department of Public Service web page: www.dps.ny.gov. To Review a Pilot Proposal and Associated Budgets

PURSUANT TO THE PROVISIONS OF THE State Administrative Procedure Act, NOTICE is hereby given of the following proposed rule:

Proposed Action: The Commission is considering a gas demand response pilot proposal filed by National Fuel Gas Distribution Corporation.

Statutory authority: Public Service Law, sections 5, 65 and 66

Subject: To review a pilot proposal and associated budgets.

Purpose: To assess whether the proposed pilot program impact is in the public interest.

Substance of proposed rule: The Public Service Commission (Commission) is considering a gas demand response pilot program proposal (Pilot) filed by National Fuel Gas Distribution Corporation (NFG or the Company) on May 31, 2024, in accordance with the Commission's December 13, 2023 Order Implementing Long-Term Natural Gas Plan with Modifications in this proceeding.

The Company states that the Pilot is aimed at reducing gas usage on the coldest days or hours of the year by incentivizing customers to voluntarily reduce or shift their usage to a less constrained period. As part of its Pilot, the Company is proposing a program to reduce residential heating load during windows of peak gas demand by remotely adjusting eligible customers smart thermostats, and a second program that would provide incentives to eligible commercial and industrial customers to reduce peak day usage by either limiting or curtailing heating load, or by shifting load to another time of day to support peak day usage. NFG proposes to run the pilot programs for three years, and seeks to recover annual program costs on through a surcharge within the Delivery Adjustment Charge. The Company proposes to track and defer all eligible program costs incurred over the course of each program year and develop a rate effective for a 12-month period that would begin on July 1 of each year that would be designed to recover all program costs incurred during the prior program year.

The full text of the proposal and the full record of the proceeding may be reviewed online at the Department of Public Service web page: www.dps.ny.gov. The Commission may adopt, reject, or modify, in whole or in part, the action proposed, and may resolve other related matters.

Consensus Rule Making Determination

The Office of Temporary and Disability Assistance (OTDA) is proposing a rule to replace the following obsolete and stigmatizing terms in existing State regulations: (1) “Office of Alcoholism and Substance Abuse Services” would be replaced with “Office of Addiction Services and Supports” (OASAS) at 18 NYCRR §§ 351.2(i)(1)(i)–(ii) and (iv)(a), 352.8(b)(4)(ii), and 352.8(c)(1)(i); (2) “abusing” would be replaced with “misusing” at 18 NYCRR § 351.2(i)(1)(ii); (3) “alcohol and/or substance abuse” at 18 NYCRR §§ 351.2(i)(1)(i)–(iii), 351.2(l)(7)(i), 352.8(a), 385.8(c)(12), and 651.2(a)(8)(i) and (iii) would be replaced with “substance use disorder”; (4) “Office of Mental Retardation and Developmental Disabilities” would be replaced with “Office for People With Developmental Disabilities” at 18 NYCRR § 352.8(b)(4)(i)–(iii); (5) “schools for the mentally retarded” at 18 NYCRR § 352.8(b)(4)(iii) would be replaced with “schools for persons with intellectual/developmental disabilities”; and (6) “hostel for the mentally retarded” and “residential facility for the mentally retarded,” both at 18 NYCRR § 352.8(e), would be replaced with “hostel for persons with intellectual/developmental disabilities” and “residential facility for persons with intellectual/developmental disabilities,” respectively.

OTDA does not anticipate that any person will object to the proposed regulatory amendments contained in this consensus rule making. The proposed regulatory amendments would update obsolete names of State agencies found in the current State regulations and would replace stigmatizing terms.

Job Impact Statement

A JIS is not required for the proposed regulatory amendments to 18 NYCRR §§ 351.2(i)(1)(i)–(iv), 351.2(l)(7)(i), 352.8(a), 352.8(b)(4)(i)–(iii), 352.8(c)(1)(i), 352.8(e) 385.8(c)(12), and 651.2(a)(8)(i) and (iii). The proposed regulatory amendments seek to update State regulations by replacing obsolete and stigmatizing terms. It is apparent from the nature and purpose of the proposed regulatory amendments that they would not have a substantial adverse impact on jobs and employment opportunities in the public and private sectors of the State. The proposed regulatory amendments would not substantively affect the jobs of employees at the state or social service district (district) level. Adoption of the proposed regulatory amendments, which would merely update State regulations to eliminate obsolete and stigmatizing terminology, would not impose any new annual costs or administrative burdens upon the districts.

ACTION PENDING INDEX

The action pending index is a list of all proposed rules which are currently being considered for adoption. A proposed rule is added to the index when the notice of proposed rule making is first published in the Register. A proposed rule is removed from the index when any of the following occur: (1) the proposal is adopted as a permanent rule; (2) the proposal is rejected and withdrawn from consideration; or (3) the proposal's notice expires.

Most notices expire in approximately 12 months if the agency does not adopt or reject the proposal within that time. The expiration date is printed in the second column of the action pending index. Some notices, however, never expire. Those notices are identified by the word "exempt" in the second column. Actions pending for one year or more are preceded by an asterisk(*).

For additional information concerning any of the proposals listed in the action pending index, use the identification number to locate the text of the original notice of proposed rule making. The identification number contains a code which identifies the agency, the issue of the Register in which the notice was printed, the year in which the notice was printed and the notice's serial number. The following diagram shows how to read identification number codes.

Agency code	Issue number	Year published	Serial number	Action Code
AAM	01	12	0001	P

A bidder is restricted from making contacts from the earliest posting on the OGS website, in a newspaper of general circulation, or in the Contract Reporter, of written notice, advertisement or solicitation of offers, through final award and approval of the contract by OGS D&C and the Office of the State Comptroller ("Restricted Period") to other than designated staff, unless it is a contact that is included among certain statutory exceptions set forth in State Finance Law § 139-j(3)(a). All bidders are expected to cooperate in implementing this policy. OGS hereby establishes an overall goal of 30% for MWBE participation, 15% for Minority-Owned Business Enterprises ("MBE") participation and 15% for Women-Owned Business Enterprises ("WBE") participation (based on the current availability of qualified MBEs and WBEs). The total contract goal can be obtained by utilizing any combination of MBE and/or WBE participation for subcontracting and supplies acquired under this Contract. Trades with 0% goals are encouraged to make "good faith efforts" to promote and assist in the participation of MWBEs on the Contract for the provision of services and materials.

Article 3 of the Veteran's Services Law provides for more meaningful participation in public procurement by certified Service-Disabled Veteran-Owned Businesses ("SDVOBs"). Such participation may be as subcontractors or suppliers, as protégés, or in other partnering or supporting roles. OGS hereby establishes overall goals for SDVOBs' participation under this contract as follows: 6% for the C trade contractor, based on the current availability of qualified SDVOBs. Trades with 0% goals are encouraged to make "good faith efforts" to promote and assist in the participation of SDVOBs on the Contract for the provision of services and materials.

EXECUTIVE ORDERS

Executive Order No. 39: Declaring a Disaster Emergency in the County of Suffolk.

WHEREAS, on August 18, 2024, and continuing thereafter, severe storms created hazardous conditions posing an imminent danger to public transportation, utility service, public health, and public safety systems in the county of Suffolk;

WHEREAS, the storm produced nearly 10 inches of rain and was a 1-1,000 year rainfall event for parts of Suffolk County, leading to a flash flood emergency that caused road closures and washouts, travel disruptions, and damage to public and private property, which pose a threat to the public health and safety;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, KATHY HOCHUL, Governor of the State of New York, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution of the State of New York and Section 28 of Article 2-B of the Executive Law, do hereby find that a disaster has occurred for which the affected local governments are unable to respond adequately. Therefore, I hereby declare a State Disaster Emergency effective August 23, 2024, for the county of Suffolk. This Executive Order shall be in effect through September 22, 2024; and

IN ADDITION, this declaration satisfies the requirements of 49 CFR 390.23(b), which provides relief from 49 CFR sections 395.2 and 395.5. Such relief from the federal motor carrier hours of service rules is necessary to ensure that crews can clear vital roadways and hasten the movement of utility power restoration crews into New York State;

FURTHER, by virtue of the authority vested in me by Section 29-a of Article 2-B of the Executive Law to temporarily suspend or modify any statute, local law, ordinance, order, rule, or regulation, or parts thereof, if compliance with such statute, local law, ordinance, order, rule, or regulation would prevent, hinder, or delay action necessary to cope with the disaster emergency, I hereby temporarily suspend or modify, for the period from the date of this Executive Order through September 22, 2024, the following laws:

General Municipal Law Article 5-A to the extent necessary to purchase supplies, services, including construction, and equipment without following the standard notice and procurement processes;
