II. DEPARTMENT REPORTS

- A. Enforcement Report – J. Bilello reported on the enforcement statistics from September 4, 2022 to September 4, 2023 and September 4, 2023 to September 4, 2024.

- B. Processing Report – E. Lupe provided the Processing Report including the number of current real estate licensees for July 2023 and July 2024.
- C. Examination Report – S. Maguire reported that for the first half of 2024, the Real Estate Salesperson examination was administered to 10,087 individuals with a pass rate of 51%. In that same timeframe, the Real Estate Broker examination was administered to 669 individuals with a pass rate of 52%.

III. NEW BUSINESS

- A. Removal of Seller Credit from Property Condition Disclosure Law – N. Garfinkel mentioned that due to the recently amended Property Condition Disclosure Law removing the $500 seller credit, there has been some confusion regarding whether the property condition disclosure form is required to be filled out by the seller.
- B. Requiring Buyer Broker Agreements – N. Garfinkel wanted to make the Department of State aware that there has been discussion among the Real Estate Board of New York and the New York State Association of Realtors regarding the settlement from the National Association of Realtors lawsuit that requires buyer broker agreements between buyers and brokers.

IV. ADJOURNMENT – Neil Garfinkel called the meeting adjourned at 1:16 p.m.

V. PUBLIC HEARING SESSION – M. Wolf asked if any person from the public wanted to participate or to comment. There was no public participation. M. Wolf ended the session at 1:17 p.m.
