2. An enforcement action against Mack Daddy Consultant, Inc. d/b/a Trade Show Travel Co. et. al. and all controlling persons named or unnamed, as defined in General Business Law §§399-z(g) and (h), including but not limited to its parents, members, officers, directors, managers, principals and owners (collectively referred to as "Respondents"), was initiated based on complaints received by the Department alleging violations of New York State General Business Law §399-z and 19 New York Codes, Rules and Regulations (NYCRR), Part 220.

3. Respondents enter into this agreement to resolve a disputed matter and settle alleged violations of New York General Business Law §399-z(5), to wit: having made or caused to be made unsolicited telemarketing sales calls to consumers who registered telephone numbers on the national do-not-call registry, established by the Federal Trade Commission, thirty-one (31) days or longer prior to the date each call was made.

4. By executing this Consent Order, Respondents affirmatively waive the right to a hearing in the manner provided by law, consent to the issuance and entry of this Order and agree to be bound by the terms, provisions and conditions contained herein.

5. Specifically, Respondents agree that they shall not contact any New York State resident who has registered their number on the national do-not-call registry at least thirty-one (31) days prior to the contact without documentation of the consumer's express request to contact as required by General Business Law §399-z(1)(k).

6. In settlement of this matter, the Department and Respondents agree to a civil penalty of $60,000.00.

7. Respondents are aware that the Department alleges violations of New York General Business Law §399-z relating to telemarketing calls made in New York State by Respondents. The Department consents to close and discontinue the investigation into any violations occurring prior to the date on which this Order is signed, with prejudice, provided that the Respondents comply with this Order and all terms and conditions outlined in TC1-TC9, below.

NOW, in consideration of the above, the parties consent to entry of an ORDER as outlined herein and subject to the following additional terms and conditions:

TC1. Respondents shall return the fully executed and notarized Consent Order such that same is received by the Department on or before January 31, 2025. The mailing address to which the Consent Order should be sent is: NYS Department of State, Division of Consumer Protection, Attn: Katie Sherwin, Division Director, One Commerce Plaza, 99 Washington Avenue, Suite 500, Albany, NY 12231.

TC3. Respondents shall register as a telemarketer in New York State in accordance with General Business Law §399-pp prior to engaging in any further telemarketing in New York State.

TC4. The Consent Order herein expressly depends upon representations made by Respondents both oral or written, formal or informal which relate to the subject matter of the Consent Order, as well as the accuracy, truthfulness, and completeness of all such representations to the Department. If any such representation is determined to be limited, inaccurate or untruthful, the Department shall not be bound by the terms herein and shall initiate any lawfully authorized action against Respondents.

TC5. The effective date of this Order shall be the date on which the Secretary of State or their designee signs the same. The Department will provide Respondents with a fully executed copy of this Order as soon as practicable after the Secretary of State, or their designee signs the same.

TC6. The failure of Respondents to comply fully and in timely fashion with any provision of this Order shall constitute a default and a failure to perform an obligation under this Order. Such default shall result in a referral to the Office of Attorney General for collection of the full civil penalty for each identified violation as identified in New York General Business Law §399-z(14)(a) and pursuant to New York Executive Law §63. Respondents hereby acknowledge the fine owed under this agreement, accept the same as valid and waive the right to contest the same. Specifically, the civil penalty is owed by reason of the alleged violations of, inter alia, New York General Business Law §399-z and the regulations promulgated thereunder.

TC7. This Order constitutes the entire agreement of the parties, and no provision of the agreement shall be deemed waived or otherwise modified except as is specifically set forth in a writing executed by the Secretary of State or their designee indicating an intent to modify this Order.

TC8. Nothing contained in this Order shall be construed as barring, diminishing, adjudicating or in any way affecting (1) any legal, administrative or equitable rights or claims, actions, suits, causes of action or demand whatsoever that the Department may have against anyone, other than Respondents, their parents, subsidiaries or affiliates; (2) any right of the Department to enforce administratively or at law or in equity, the terms, provisions and conditions of this Order; or (3) any right of the Department to bring any future action, either administrative or judicial, for any future violations of the applicable laws, the implementing regulations or conditions contained in orders if any, issued by the Department to Respondents.
